Apologies -

School

Mandi came to talk about the changes to the school menu so there are now 3 choices - she needs to know how children feel about the changes and what everyone's preferences are.

The children explained that the vegetarian options aren't popular, Mandi has to keep them however to ensure vegetarians have some variety.

Cheese and onion pasties have been removed as they seemed to be unpopular.

- What would you prefer?
 - Toffee tart
 - Strawberry mousse
 - Sponge pudding
- Do we want more cookies on the menu?
- Coleslaw has been taken out, do we want to replace this with sweetcorn?
- Do you want carrot or orange/mandarin cake?
- Do you want cold (mixed salad/cucumber sticks) or hot vegetables?

She has asked school council to write a letter explaining what we like and don't like as a school.

School council discussed school rules. We talked about what school rules look like throughout school.

We talked about what does respecting school property look like?

- Not littering
- Not standing on equipment.
- Children not playing/ climbing on blue hand rails around school.
- Looking after equipment.
- Tidying up after ourselves in the lunch hall.

Can you think of any other examples?
